

Saving Grace

Christian Bible Fellowship

Considering herself a personal testimony to the incredible Saving Grace of God, Sister Harriett Jones had to learn to trust God at an early age upon experiencing the loss of her mother by a drunk driver. Although left with a loving and devoted father, sister and brother, the world she knew would never be the same. With the support of her family, she completed her college education at Texas Southern University in Houston, TX and immediately moved to Hollywood, California. There she became involved in a glamorous fairy tale lifestyle that was neither spiritually fulfilling nor pleasing to her family.

Harriett had a promising career ahead of her when stricken with several serious illnesses and family losses. In the midst of her diligent search for inner peace and contentment, Jesus stepped in to touch her life and placed the burning desire within her heart to truly know, love and follow Him. While never allowing adversity to hinder her adamant quest in seeking to serve the Lord, she still found herself to be a Christian woman in need of victory.
